

The Site Plan is a draught version, which has been developed from the one submitted for major events in 2021. This site plan will be updated as the event planning process continues. It shows the extent of the area used and examples of the types of structures that will be in situ. The finalised site plan for 2022 will be agreed within the Licensing and SAG processes.