Two dead in night of violence in Brixton

BY JAMES TWOMEY
james@slpmedia.co.uk

Tributes have poured in for two men who were killed in a night of violence in Brixton on Sunday.

Rapper Perm, from a Clapham-based Drill group, and a Deliveroo driver, who has been locally identified as Brazilian national Guilherme Messias da Silva, aged 21, were killed following a car chase that ended in tragedy in Railton Road.

Mr da Silva was reportedly making his last delivery of the night at around 7.50pm before one of two cars in a chase collided with him and killed him.

After the crash, Perm got out of one of the vehicles and was chased by a man from the second car, who was armed with a gun when he was shot and killed.

The Met are still yet to officially confirm the identities of the two victims, and so far no arrests have been made.

Boxer Dillian Whyte shared a post on Instagram from a friend, Dean Whyte, whose son is believed to be Perm.

Mr Whyte said in the post: "RIP my boy, daddy loves u. Life has changed forever."

Another message posted to Dean's Instagram account on Tuesday said: "Just wanna thank you all for your messages and support. Can't get through all of the messages at this time but just know its appreciated (sic).

"Hearts forever broken. Love you my boy."

Perm was a member of the CT Drill group, who allegedly share their name with a gang of the same name, known as ClapTown (CT).

Woman stabbed to death in Lewisham is named by police

The Met have named a woman who was stabbed to death in Lewisham on Tuesday afternoon.

The woman has been identified as 32-year-old Keisha Christodoulou.

Leon Murray, 33, of Tanner's Hill in Lewisham, has been charged with murder and was due to appear in custody at Bromley Magistrates' Court yesterday.

Police were called to Tanner's Hill at around 3.40pm on Tuesday after concerns were raised for the welfare of a woman at an address there.

Ms Christodoulou was found with stab wounds. Despite the efforts of the emergency services, she was pronounced dead at the scene.

Her next of kin have been informed and are being supported by officers from the Met's Specialist Crime Command.

The Met confirmed the victim and the defendant were known to each other.
